PRISONERS IN ALAMEDA COUNTY JAIL TRY TO MURDER JAILOR THEN MAKE DASH FOR LIBERTY

WILL REORGANIZE DIRECTORATE OF PEOPLE'S WATER COMPANY

Prominent Financiers Are Invited to Go on the Board--President Titus to Retire and New Manager to Be Selected.

An important move is being made in financial circles to strengthen the People's Water Company, which, however, is already in excellent condition. It is proposed to reorganize the board of directors of the corporation, securing as member of the board prominent and representative business men who will give their time to the corporation.

It is further proposed that these directors will be active workers in the affairs of the company. With them, securing as members of the company have invited the following gentlemen to act as directors:

Proposed Directors

J. Y. Ecdleston, cashier of the Oakland Bank of Savings.

L. G. Burpee, vice-president of the First National Bank.

J. F. Carlston, vice-president and manager of the Central Bank.

H. C. Capwell, president of the Security Bank.

Walter H. Lelmer, of the firm of Wickham Havens Incorporated.

Wickham Havens.

While a number of these gentlemen are connected with prominent banks in Oakland, it is distinctly stated that the financial institutions are not taking over the affairs of the water company or backing that organization; but, on the contrary, the directors are simply to act as individuals. As a matter of fact, the water company at the present time does not need the actual financial assistance of the banks, because they say the corporation is really in a good financial condition.

Titus Will Retire

Some of the directors who have been invited to serve have not yet given their final answer, still having the subject under consideration, but it is probable that all will accept the trust to be reposed in them.

President Louis Titus will retire as the head of the People's Company, not because he has been a failure as the leading light in that organization, but because of the fact that he has large personal interests which require a great deal of his attention, besides, his health has been very poor during the past year, making it impossible for him to keep up with the work required.

A new president will not be selected until the reorganization of the board of directors is completed, when they will hold a meeting and select a prominent and representative man to head the water company.

Money in Betterments

The People's Water Company has made wonderful progress in the matter of patronage during the past three years, having nearly doubled the number of its services within its territory. The showing is a most remarkable one. The company supplies water to the people of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Fruitvale, Melrose, Elmhurst and San Leandro.

During the past three years it has spent a very large sum of money in betterments, trying to meet the heavy requirements made upon it in supplying its large increase of customers. The story has gone forth to the effect that the reorganization would mean a complete new deal all around, and that the basis were going to run the water company. This, however, is not the fact, as has already been stated.

Reason for Change

It is pointed out by the gentlemen who are active in the recognition of the board of directors, that a number of the present directors are so engaged in their private business that they cannot give the time required of them to the affairs of the People's Water Company. For this reason, it is desired to secure directors on the board who are near at hand, and who can give the corporation much of their time, and hold meetings weekly to discuss the affairs of the institution and give their advice and counsel to the directors. When the reorganization is complete, the directors will look around for a new manager, who will give his entire time to the People's Water Company.

Will Make Progress

The indebtedness of the People's Water Company is being taken care of by its financiers, and there is no danger whatever but what the institution will make greater progress in the future than in the past. The reorganization is looked upon as a good thing for Oakland. It will help the securities of the water company, and place them on a firmer basis than ever.

Better Than Ever

Plans will be made and perfected to see that the customers will secure all the water that is required in this locality, and efforts will be made at once to better the service in every way. Within a few days, providing the directors who have been invited to accept, the reorganization will be completed and the water company will be put on a better basis than ever.

Prisoner Hit On Head With a Heavy Club

Harry Stolcup, one of the three criminals who are awaiting trial for breaking out of the City Jail recently at the head of a band of the most desperate inmates of the County Jail, made a sensational attempt this afternoon to murder Chief Jailer Peter White, and break through the bars to liberty.

Is Bold Attempt

The outbreak occurred about 2:30 o'clock, while all of the prisoners were exercising themselves in the main corridor of the jail. Chief Jailer White was sitting in a chair in the corridor just outside his office.

Inside the office Dr. Curdt, the prison surgeon, had just finished dressing J. B. Clifton's infected arm and had gone to the lavatory to wash his hands, when the uproar began.

Stolcup, in the lead of four other prisoners, emerged from his cell as soon as he saw Dr. Curdt enter the lavatory, and made a dash for White. Stolcup had picked up a heavy iron bar that stood loose, and when he came within striking distance he swung it with all his might and struck White upon the head.

Trusty Saves Him

This blow sent the chief jailer reeling to the floor, and Stolcup was about to follow this blow up with another one, when Jimmy Green, a trusty prisoner, grabbed the bar out of his hand and struck him over the head with it, knocking Stolcup senseless to the floor.

James Carmill, another trusty, rushed at Stolcup and threw himself across his prostrate form to prevent him from doing any more damage.

ALFRED W. BURRELL, OAKLAND PIONEER, DIES IN MONTANA

THE LATE ALFRED W. BURRELL.

Alfred W. Burrell, a pioneer of Oakland and president of the Burrell Bridge and Construction Company, died at 4 o'clock this morning in a hospital at Missoula, Montana, after an illness of four days.

His death was caused by pneumonia contracted while riding in the train from Seattle to Missoula, where he is buried in a bridge over the Missoula river. He had been comparatively in good health up to the time of his departure for Missoula.

His family left Oakland Tuesday night for Missoula to be at his bedside, but will not reach their destination until tonight. The sad news had already been broken to them by telegram.

Oakland Headquarters

The late Mr. Burrell made his headquarters in Oakland, but during the past year the greater part of his time was passed between Seattle and Missoula. He was erecting two buildings in Seattle for the fair. In Missoula he was directing the work on a bridge which was started two months ago.

About ten years ago he built the famous Lemna bridge in San Salvador. He built the Lafayette Grant and Sweet public school buildings in this city and the High Street bridge and numerous other structures in Alameda County. The military post at Fort Casey, Flagstaff and Baker were also erected under the direction of the late Mr. Burrell. The post at Honolulu was built by him as well as the court-house at Wallula.

Authority on Bridges

The late Mr. Burrell was considered one of the leading men in his profession and was an authority on bridge building. For the past thirty years he has been engaged in this line of work in Oakland. He was a hard and successful worker and the buildings which he constructed are monuments to his memory.

The deceased, who was about 61 years of age, was a past president of Oakland Commandery, Knights Templar, and also a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. He was formerly a member of the Board of Education of this city in all the civic affairs of this city he took an active part and was considered one of its most estimable citizens.

In the case of a child Mr. Burrell always responded liberally. He was always willing to help the poor and needy who were brought to his notice. He had a splendid character and was loved by all who knew him. The famous builder was born in Pennsylvania. He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters. They are A. W. and L. H. Burrell, Grace and Florence Burrell.

The body will be brought to Oakland Tuesday or Wednesday. The funeral will be conducted under the auspices of Oakland Commandery, Knights Templar.

Martin J. Eagan to Be Private Secretary To President Taft

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Martin J. Eagan, the well known newspaper man, is slated to be appointed Private Secretary to President Taft. This is a statement made by a gentleman closely connected with the White House. It is said that Mr. Eagan's appointment will be made in about four months.

Martin Eagan is well known in Oakland. Some years ago he was Oakland co-resident for the San Francisco Chronicle. Subsequently he went to the Associated Press and covered the war in China, later going to Manila, where he met President Taft and became his confidential friend.

For a time he traveled with Taft. Returning to America, he was appointed London correspondent for the Associated Press, which position he held for some time. Resigning from that position he returned to Manila, where he engaged in active newspaper work. He is now located in the city of Manila.

Mr. Eagan's appointment will come as a surprise to his many friends. It is said that President Taft has a great liking for Eagan, and was very much taken with him when he met him in Manila.

2 MEN BURN TO DEATH AND 4 HURT IN OIL FIRE AT PT. RICHMOND

Employees Bravely Fight Flames Till They Are Overcome by Flames of Petroleum.

POINT RICHMOND, April 9.—At 10 o'clock this morning almost in the twinkling of an eye, 1500 barrels of crude oil in course of refinement freed themselves from their imprisonment in still No. 39 at the Standard Oil Company's plant in this city, and at the same moment were converted into a rushing, roaring, menacing, destroying sea of flame, which not only destroyed material objects, but also caught in its onward sweep animals and human beings and before they could get beyond its influence or relief could be extended to them, enveloped them in flames, almost instantly reducing them to a crisp beyond the possibility of identification.

Two men met their death in this horrible manner and four others who were also caught in the flaming torrent were so badly burned that the lives of all of them are despaired of, and one of them, at least, will not survive the day.

Those Dead and Injured

The dead are as follows: Charles Lawrence, aged 36 years, a resident of Santa Rosa.

John Granger, gatekeeper, aged 63 years, a resident of this city.

The injured are:

Clarence Perault, 41 years, who will die.

Chris Schmid, trolleyman, burned about the face and hands.

L. M. Moore, labor superintendent, burns on face and hands.

James Montgomery, teamster, burns on shoulder and hands.

So rapid was the spread of the destroying element that a team of mules which was being driven by the plant at the time was unable to reach a place of safety before they were absolutely incinerated in their tracks.

The rapidity with which the destruction was accomplished for a time paralyzed the faculties of the employees of the company and prevented the carrying into execution of the orders of the officials of the plant for the purpose of preventing the sweeping flood of fire from laying low some of the most expensive parts of the concern.

Streams of Water Turned on Flames

When at length the operatives recovered from their stupor streams from the salt water plant of the company were brought into requisition, but these had little effect in the attempt to extinguish the flames. The streams, however, served to check the mad rush of the burning liquid in the direction in which it could find material to satisfy its destructive appetite.

Damage Is $50,000

When steam was drawn from the boilers in the plant and this had the effect of finally getting the flames under control for the moment, another eddy of fire in a most satisfactory manner.

Outside the loss of life and the amount of material destroyed and the fact that several structures were not far from $50,000. The accident is one of the most peculiar that has ever taken place in this plant, and old workers in the plant declare that they have never experienced an affair of the kind before. There is no person who is known to explain the cause of the disaster. The first intimation was anything wrong on the report of an explosion which knocked some of the workmen off their feet and which caused apprehension in the surrounding country that another and possibly fatal explosion had taken place in one of the powder magazines in some of the neighboring towns.

Woman Points Out Principal
Forms of Cruelty in Divorce
Complaint

Mary G. Goodwin's complaint for divorce from Louis E. Goodwin, filed in the Superior Court today, is a story of brutality that is rarely being equaled in the history of Alameda county litigation. Goodwin is a truck driver and according to his wife draws a salary of at least $10 a month and probably more in addition to the legal dissolution of the marital vows she asks the court to place the three minor children in to her keeping and to compel her husband to pay her $75 a month alimony, $100 attorney's fees and $40 more for costs of suit.

The couple were married in Oakland on December 12, 1894 and according to the complaint Goodwin entered upon a systematic and deliberate plan of cruelty toward his wife.

Beaten, She Says

Mrs. Goodwin says in her petition that on the night of January 10, 1898 Goodwin ordered her to go to bed and upon her refusing to retire at that particular moment he flew into a violent rage, threw a shoe at her and threatened to kill her. Later on in the evening when Mrs. Goodwin entered the bedroom she found that Goodwin had hung himself with a sheet over the top of the door for the purpose of frightening her and that the horror of the spectacle almost threw her into convulsions. Not long after this episode Goodwin is alleged to have kicked his wife and caused her to fall to the floor. She was compelled to summon the neighbors to her assistance. Goodwin was in such a towering passion that it was necessary to secure a policeman to quiet him.

Goodwin was everlastingly nagging at his wife for the manner in which she dressed. In fact, in December, 1897 he found all manner of fault with her clothing and two of her most valuable waists were destroyed. He called her vile names and accused her of stealing and down Broadway for the purpose of showing her shape and looking into clear stores.

Steak Upsets House

On the last of Christmas eve Mrs. Goodwin was about to leave the house to make a few Christmas purchases when she alleged Goodwin flew into a violent rage over some trivial matter, threatened to kill her and threw a bottle of whiskey at her. It was not long after this outburst that the funeral of a friend and asked her husband to fry a steak for the children's dinner. This simple request she alleges angered her husband and that he threw the steak at her and hit her in the face as far as the eye could throw it.

One day in May 1908 it is charged by Mrs. Goodwin she picked up a quarrel with her and attempted to strike her with his coat. It struck the gas fixtures instead and broke them from the ceiling. Goodwin's rage was so violent that she was so badly frightened that she fled through a window into the street. Then Goodwin ordered her to leave the house and never return. She was riding in a taxicab when he pulled the telephone from the wall.

Rips Out Phone

It would appear that for the sake of the children the couple pitched up their troubles and for as much as a month comparative tranquillity reigned over the household. Then there was another outburst which Mrs. Goodwin alleges her husband maliciously attempted to poison her by holding conversations over the wire with them and with making dates with them and that he refused to put a stop to this imaginary interference. He pulled the telephone from the wall.

Goodwin is alleged to have left the home of his family on January 22, 1909, since which time he has been absent and contributed the maintenance of 50 cents a day for the house rent and support of his wife and children.

SENSITIVE WIFE TIRES OF SPOUSE

Mabel Matilda Wilson has instituted suit for divorce in the Superior Court from Howard Melville Wilson, a well-known Oakland collector on the grounds of extreme cruelty and habitual interference.

From the complaint it appears that almost immediately after the marriage of the couple which occurred in San Francisco, 1907 and while they were residing at 1277 Washington street, Oakland Wilson began to go home drunk late at night. It is alleged on an average of three or four times a week, and that while in that condition he would have fully sufficient to inflict upon her the greatest physical and mental suffering. He would attempt to drink her in a violent manner in his wrist with a pair of scissors.

Mrs. Wilson concluded her complaint by saying that she is a woman of good family and education but she is sensitive of nature and that all the acts of her husband are revolting to her that she does not wish to be divorced from him but that he will not earn a living for her and that she is unable to support herself and her children.

This morning there were three men called and it was made apparent by the sheriff that they did not wish being taken from their ordinary pursuits and forced to appear in court.

The two deputy sheriffs who were called for jury duty this morning have been taken time for subpoenaing witnesses. They have been practically exhausted. The sheriff has been making their selection from the list of names and they have been making their selection from the list of names and they have been making their selection from the list of names.

BIG FLOOD OF BURNING OIL SURROUNDS MAN AND BEAST

CAUSE OF THE EXPLOSION IS NOT KNOWN

HEAT TERRIFIC, AND FIRE RAGES FOR HOURS

Employees Seek to Save Works But Are Overcome by Flames

It was composed of two shreds of twisted, broken and worthless scraps of steel. The contents of the still were in "last stages of purification." Beneath the flames, which were eating the refinement there was no person, but the still at the time, for the reason that a great deal of the work of refining at the plant is done in an automatic manner by means of machinery, which has been patented by the company.

Still Springs Leak

It is supposed that the still sprung a leak and that the oil leaked down into the fireplace, and under the influence of the heat generated a gas, which finally blew the still into fragments and sent the blazing and scintillating oil on its work of destruction.

Before the fuel of the flaming bed was staved in its course, it had covered more than eight acres of ground, and when its course was finally stopped it continued to burn for several hours in defiance of the strenuous efforts of the men who were fighting with the flames means known to science.

1500 Men Fight Fire

At one time, there were not fewer than fifteen hundred men engaged in the work of subduing the fire-attending and dandy element and there were none of them who did not put forth his best efforts willingly and, in some instances, heroically, because at times, the shifting of the wind caused the clothing of some of the men to burst into flames, which later could not be subdued save by the person so assailed another the inevitable blaze by throwing himself to the ground and rolling on the moist surface.

The first of the victims of the flames was Charles Lawrence, aged thirty years, who is a resident of Santa Rosa. He is chief clerk in the marine department of the company. He was passing the still at the time of the explosion. He was splashed with the burning oil

Chris Smith, the trolley man for the company, was bringing his car to a stop at the northern terminus of the line, operated by the company, and tells a graphic story of the explosion. Smith says: "I had just come up from the wharf, when I saw a flash of flame coming from the middle of the three oil stills in the north end of the grounds. The next thing I knew the air was full of flames. It seemed as if all hell had broke loose. Everywhere was fire. My hat was on fire and my coat was on fire. I could hardly breathe. I saw the flames rushing everywhere, and saw Lawrence hit in the head. I jumped my trolley, and jumped to the side of the car and hid under it.

Strips Himself of His Clothing

I pulled my burning hat and coat off, almost stripped myself of clothing, and ran for clear air to the water front, about ten yards away. My hair was on fire. The side of my face was burning. I went to Dr. Blake's office, when I got out of the danger zone, and was treated for several serious burns. Granger lost his life, I think, trying to help Lawrence. He had a chance to escape. It was terrible while it lasted, and I thought the whole works were burning up, and that the air was on fire."

Man Escapes but Mules Burn

James Montgomery, the teamster who was among the injured, owes his life to a fortunate circumstance. He did not see the explosion but a span of fire coming toward him, and jumping down, got under the wagon. He escaped with slight burns, and the mules that saved his life were burned to death on the spot where they stood.

L. M. Moore owes his injuries his efforts to save Watchman Granger. He pulled the poor suffering man out of the fire while burning oil was enveloping him. He was very sorry to learn afterward his labors had been in vain.

and in an instant was enveloped in flames. He was unable to aid himself and was carried beyond recognition inside a few minutes his heart-rending shrieks assailing the ears of fellow-workers who, with the greatest willingness in the world, were unable to do anything to afford him relief.

Overtaken by Flames

The next victim was an old man named John Granger, who acted as gate-keeper to the inclosure in which the dismantled still stood. Granger was 70 years of age. He was agile, however, and when he realized his danger sought safety in flight, but his efforts were futile. He was overtaken by the flowing oil. His clothing blazed in a moment and he fell to the ground, screaming and gasping until he was roasted into insensibility. When it was possible to reach him, the unfortunate man was taken to the Abbott hospital, where he died soon after.

A similar fate was experienced by a man named Perault, who was burned in many places on the body and in a special manner on the head.

Wagon and Mules Burn

One of the most peculiar experiences of the holocaust was that of a teamster whose name could not be ascertained. This man was in charge of a team of mules, which were hitched to a wagon, in the attempt to save the animals and himself, the driver had one of his hands burned off and then was compelled to abandon his team and, as a consequence, the mules and the wagon to which they were harnessed were consumed.

The injured people are at this writing in the Abbott hospital in this city. They are receiving considerable care and attention, but all of them are suffering the most intense pain.

The explosion has attracted to the scene hundreds of people and with all of them the wonder is how so strange and so horrible a catastrophe could take place.

ONCE FAMOUS, ENDS LIFE BY BODY OF WIFE HE KILLED

NOW PUBLIC CHARGE

Ex-City Attorney Is Sent to County Infirmary Suffering From Consumption.

BRILLIANT LAWYER IN EARLY DAYS OF BAR

Splendid Career of Other Times Closes at Door of Hospital.

The physical wreck of what was once the brilliant J. M. Poston, attorney at law, was sent to the county infirmary this morning a public charge.

Poston came to Oakland years ago from Marysville and began the practice of law. He was then a young man, having just emerged from Dartmouth and Yale with honors. He soon established himself prominently in the legal profession of the bay section and became known as one of the most brilliant attorneys in this section of the State. In those days his professional associates were such men as Carey Howard, Judge Glascock, Judge John Yule, Appellate Judge Hunt and other leaders of the Alameda bar.

When Poston was in the prime of his legal career he was elected city attorney of Oakland.

Caused By Drink

Poston's downward career began by drink. Later he developed tuberculosis. Several days ago Poston was missed from his office and some of his old friends who have stuck to him in his adversity, became seriously concerned about him and made inquiries. He was located sick in bed in a lodging house at the corner of Fifth and Webster streets and in actual need of medical attention and the necessities of life.

Some of his old friends tried to have him admitted to a private hospital, but because he was a consumptive none would admit him there was only one alternative left, and that was the county infirmary. His friends had him transferred to that institution in an ambulance. Poston is now 56 years old and his case is said to be incurable.

Was a Pioneer

Poston came to Oakland with his mother from Marysville in the early days of Oakland. Mrs. Poston, widow, opened Poston's Seminary, which soon became one of the leading fashionable finishing schools for girls on the coast. It was opened in a fine residence plot with Stolcup jumped back into nearby cells, and the chief jailer says that as yet he is unable to identify them.

PRISONERS ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL

Stolcup's motive in attacking was to get possession of the keys and fight his way to the front entrance and there make the break for liberty.

Trusty Saved Day

The timely interference of Trusty Green, however, frustrated the scheme, but in all probability the chief jailer would have quelled the uprising because he recovered himself almost immediately after he was struck down, drew his revolver and, under a threat of shooting any prisoner who made a move, he held the whole crowd at bay until assistance came and the prisoners were safely placed back in their cells.

As soon as the uprising occurred someone turned in a general fire alarm, and in a few moments the entire fire department was at the jail. Their presence was augmented by an immense crowd of excited people, who had learned of the outbreak and were on hand in the street, just outside, to watch developments.

Treated At Hospital

Stolcup is suffering from a serious scalp wound, as a result of the part he took in the escape, and Chief Jailer White has two deep lacerated wounds on the top of his head, which was dressed at the Receiving Hospital as soon as the chief jailer could be induced to leave the jail after he had been "broken down."

There is little doubt but that Stolcup and his associates in the uprising had planned carefully as to the time they should make their break for liberty, and were prepared to meet almost any emergency that might arise.

Had Big Knife

When Trusty Green knocked him down, a long keen-edged knife fell out from his body.

Sheriff Barnett took extraordinary precautions immediately after the outbreak had been quelled by doubling the force at the jail. No further trouble is anticipated, however, but in order to guard against any possible complications, Stolcup has been placed in irons and in close confinement, and all of the other prisoners securely locked up in their cells.

The State as a Milkman.

We quote from the Los Angeles News an article dealing with a question concretely affecting the Berkeley milk dealers, but which at the same time touches a vital principle of economics. It is the propriety of the State University engaging in business as a retailer of milk and butter. The dairymen of Yolo county have protested against the University dairy farm selling butter, not on the ground that they are undersold but that the University is competing with them and taking away their custom. The Berkeley milkmen complain that the University sells milk at a price below the figure they can quote for milk of the same quality. But it is pertinent to ask why was a State dairy farm established, if its product is not to be placed on the market? It is the mission of a dairy farm to produce milk, butter and cheese. If they are not to be sold, what is to be done with them? As to the competitive and underselling aspect of the case the Los Angeles paper says:

"Oakland and Berkeley dairymen have registered a complaint against the practice of the University of California experiment farm in selling milk at 12 cents a quart when they cannot compete with the educational lacteal fluid at that price. The issue is clear. It is a question of principle. If the University farm can furnish milk at a price and show a net profit of reasonable proportions it has a moral right to sell milk at that price, but if the State farm is selling milk at cost, or at less than an earned and a living profit, then the State does wrong to the public and to the dairyman. Business conducted by a State or an individual must be operated on business principles. The cost must always be within the selling price. When this rule is violated the incentive to produce is lost and bankruptcy results. An attempt to market milk for less than the cost of production under average conditions is not scientific. It is not moral. It leads the public to expect what cannot be permanently given and this false impression sinks deep in the public consciousness until it relates itself to an endless chain of false valuation. Because a State is big enough and rich enough to run an experiment at cost or at less than cost, does not convince. It is not sound, and, though the governments of the world were back of such an institution, it would fail because principle is violated, and violation of principle always fails.

"A thing is true or it is not. A proposition is within natural order or it is in violation of natural order. There is no half way ground. If principle is applied to any purpose, the desired end is attained. If the principle is unknown and is not found, the purpose is never accomplished. If a man does not live inside of his income he will have no money, though he live a million years and work for a big salary every day of his life. The laborer who gets $1 a day and lives for 75 cents is richer than the man who gets $10 a day and spends $12. The economy of the world operates on the same principle and the failures of the world are due to its violation. If it costs the State farm 14 cents a quart to produce milk and its managers are selling it for 12 cents they are doing business on a wrong principle and are cultivating a moral unsoundness that may undermine the institution seriously.

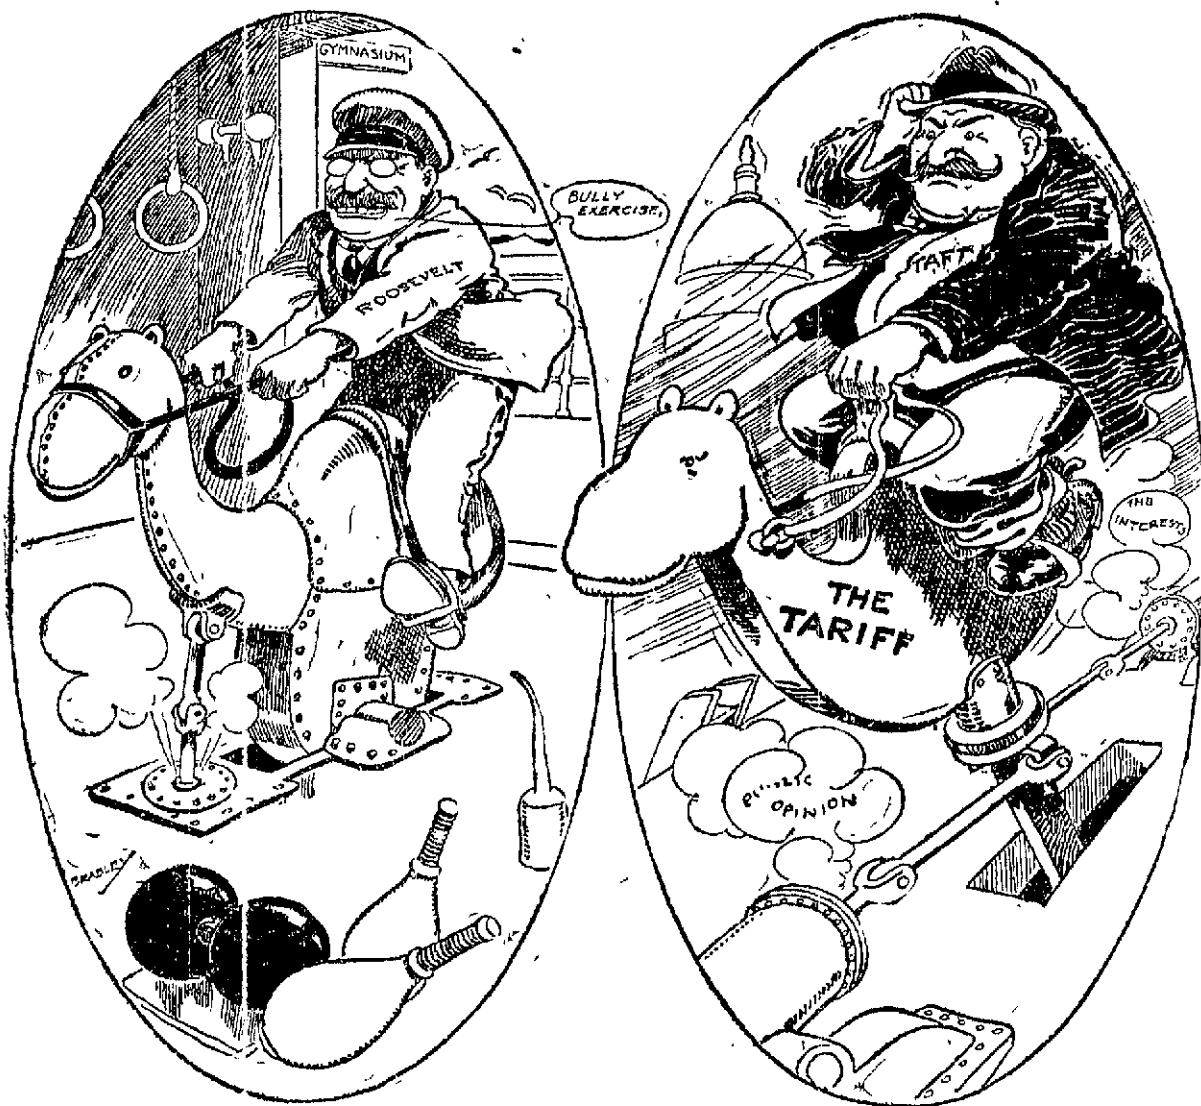

"Private dairymen claim that the State farm is selling milk at less than cost, but if the State can produce milk at the price for which it is sold, those in charge of the experiment should allow something for the fact that they are producing under ideal conditions. Our observation leads us to believe that a considerable margin exists between the two. It is easy for the agricultural chemist to announce from his laboratory that theoretically an acre or five acres of land will support so many people. With his choice of land for the conduct of experiments and a State fund back of him for his choice of seed, implements, fertilizers and scientific labor, he can and often does, obtain exceptional and admirable results. Establishing facts, through discovery of new processes, is one thing, for which every farmer should be properly encouraged. To say that the results obtained in this manner can be obtained by all farmers is unjust and untrue. The farmer of all sections is limited to climate, soil, seed and labor of the common sort. As fast as these can be made available all realize better results, but the fact always remains that the conditions are not ideal. So it is with the dairy farm. The government tests under ideal conditions are often superior, but the dairyman in practice must not be asked to compete with the government expert in theory."

The death of Madame Modjeska is not a great deprivation to the stage, of which she was so long a brilliant ornament, for her professional career, with its triumphs and possibilities, was mainly behind her; but it removes a woman who was eminent for virtues and charm in private life as she was famous for her histrionic talents. Hers was a gracious personality. In her profession she chose parts which refined and exalted the drama. The feminine quality in her was vivacious and unaffected, as free from prudery as it was from the taint of the coquette. She loved her art, but she also loved her home and had a keen appreciation of the joys of domesticity. She elevated and idealized the roles she assayed, and the sweet womanhood she revealed in all her portrayals was not the least of her claims on the appreciation of her audiences. The interest she inspired partook of affection. The news of her demise will be received with a regret akin to sorrow by millions on both sides of the Atlantic, although by far the greater number of her admirers are to be found in America, where she was given a hospitable welcome more than thirty years ago and where she has ever since reigned as a popular favorite.

The appointment of William S. Wells to the Superior Judgeship for Alameda county, created at the last session of the legislature, comes as no surprise but it is none the less welcome. It is one to be commended in every respect, and meets with the entire approval of bench, bar and laity in this county. Governor Gillett has made an irreproachable selection. The Superior bench of Alameda county has always held a high place in the judiciary of California, and this high standard is fully maintained by the appointment of Judge Wells, whose long experience on the bench is a guarantee of probity, ability and impartiality. Judge Wells is noted for his industry on the bench, hence his addition to the number of judges will materially lighten the burdens of the other members of the Superior Court.

Emma Goldman is certainly an undesirable person. The country will undoubtedly be the better off with her out of it. She ought to be deported if there is a legitimate and lawful warrant for it. Nevertheless there should be nothing savoring of sharp practice or chicanery in finding a warrant for her deportation. The desirability of getting rid of a dangerous and immoral character should not outweigh the importance of preserving the principles of the law inviolate and keeping its processes free from every appearance of partiality in their application. There should be no straining at gnats and swallowing of camels to get a hold on the female anarchist, however much we may wish her sent out of the country.

EXERCISE AFLOAT AND ASHORE

ABOARD THE STEAMSHIP HAMBURG

WASHINGTON, D. C.

—CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

Two Movements to Help Oakland.

Two movements are being carried through simultaneously this week which mean much for Oakland's future prosperity. One of them is, of course, the boosting for a five thousand membership for the Chamber of Commerce. The other is the collection of the $210,000 fund for the new building of the Young Men's Christian Association. While the objects of the two movements are widely different, the effect of both on Oakland's reputation abroad will be practically the same. The commercial spirit of Oakland and the push and enterprise of its citizens will be measured by the degree of success attained by the Chamber of Commerce, while the moral tone of the community and the value it places upon institutions organized and maintained for the improvement and elevation physically, mentally and morally will be gauged by the size of the subscription list to the Young Men's Christian Association building fund.

Both movements have forged ahead and promise the best results. The subscription list for the Y. M. C. A. building is advancing rapidly on the last $100,000 and there remains still another week to reach the $210,000 mark which has been set by its earnest and enthusiastic promoters. And the "boosters" for the Chamber of Commerce have more than doubled its membership since they started the canvass. In these two movements Oakland is making a grand display of its civic pride which cannot fail to command the admiration of the whole country and make Oakland the best and most favorably known city on the Pacific Coast, all of which will redound to its credit and profit.

It looks very much as if Congress was revising the tariff up instead of down so far as protective duties are concerned. Nearly all the purely revenue duties, such as the proposed import tax on coffee and tea, have been eliminated from the Payne bill, and a tax has been levied on iron ore and lumber, which were originally slated for the free list. Hides, however, are to come in untaxed despite the protests of the grazing States. And still the disturbance over the tariff increases. We shall probably hear a good deal of it in the next campaign.

In round numbers Uncle Sam spends $350,000,000 a year for the maintenance of the army and navy and in pension payments, yet we hear it continually asserted that the American people are not a military nation. On his way to Africa, Roosevelt said that, but in the next breath he said he hoped President Taft would strengthen the army and navy.

MICHIGAN DRY COUNTIES
COST DEALERS MILLIONS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 9. — The drying out of twenty Michigan counties in the local option election this week, will cost Cincinnati liquor interests a large amount of business annually and I believe it would be safe to estimate the loss about $2,000,000 a year, said a wholesale liquor dealer in a discussion of the liquor situation at the Chamber of Commerce here.

"There are probably $30,000,000 invested by whiskey interests in this city. Cincinnati is the great liquor center of the country and feels the prohibition wave most keenly."

This city supplied the larger part of the liquor consumed in the Michigan counties.

PROTEST AGAINST
SELLING YOUNG CHICKENS

CHICAGO, April 9. — The Anti-Cruelty Society has entered a protest against the sale of baby chickens as Easter gifts by the large department stores and food markets. In New York the Humane Society recently suppressed the practice. "The tiny victims invariably fall into the hands of children, who thoughtlessly abuse and neglect them so that the fledglings die a miserable and lingering death," said George I. Warner, president. "There can be no true education in such a result and the gift spirit is debased and abused."

Partial payments are difficult for the average schoolboy, but when he grows up he'll find payments on the installment plan even more difficult.

WOMAN WHO THREATENED
JEROME IN HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, April 9. — Miss Mary O'Meara, a school teacher, must remain under observation in the psychiatric ward of Bellevue Hospital for five days because, it is alleged, that she made threats against the life of District Attorney Jerome, John V. Cogges, formerly commissioner of corrections and several others. She was arrested yesterday by order of the Assistant District Attorney. Miss O'Meara harbored the belief that Mr. Jerome and others had entered into a conspiracy to injure her. She is thirty years old and has been a school teacher for twelve years.

SENT TO WORKHOUSE
FOR PINCHING BABY

ATLANTA, Ga., April 9. — James Strube was yesterday sentenced to the city workhouse for two weeks on a charge of biting and pinching his ten-months-old baby. The child was brought into court by its mother with its left cheek badly bruised.

Strube admitted that he bit the baby and said he did it to torture his wife, who, he said, had become indifferent to repeated beatings at his hands.

If Mr. Roosevelt and King Victor Emmanuel get to be on real chummy terms the king is likely to bear some rather vigorous views on the subject of Italian tolerance of the Mafia and the Blank Hand.

A girl can pretend to like to go walking with a man so as to pretend her shoes don't hurt her.

NOTE EXCERPT

The fierce tariff debate in Congress is the first since 1898. Higher and higher climbs the tariff. Perhaps the tariff has also a motto, "Ad Astra per Aspera".

Hickory Ground, Ok., would be a good place to select a Blue use on the Indians who "uprise".

The new tariff bill also includes duties on lunas. Perhaps the men are doing this in self-defense.

The second Mrs. Earle may now be able to appreciate why the first Mrs. Earle gave him up with so little fuss.

There will be no objections to a prohibitive tariff on the kind of E. E. Stocking. Mr. T. Beau has been impugned.

Senator Stone is among the ought to be active in behalf of the needs of many "hides" in business.

An examination of the Payne bill shows that the "leaders" were eager to push it through with as little time as possible.

There are many "infant industries" in the United States, but the real ones are not financially able to keep large jobs in Washington and make strong congressional connections.

Colonel Cooper's son, although convicted of second degree murder, is to go to Europe to spend the summer. Pending an appeal of his case, a few Southern families could not afford a European trip and a murder in one year. The Coopers in "barrel."

When Truman H. Newberry, the retiring secretary of the U. S. Navy, was offered the post of ambassador to St. Petersburg, he replied briefly: "No velvet pants for me." This remark somewhat shocked Washington, but in Michigan the people say make him a senator on the strength of it.

Sergeant McDonigle of Chicago's police automobile squad thinks that such over-spending of motorists is due to smelly car ahead. The sergeant, addressing the court in a recent case, said: "Your Honor, if I may be permitted to say a word, I believe that automobiles are worse than speeding."

automobiles, and that they are also the cause of many accidents and much of the speeding done by chauffeurs. If a man were driving a dirty, smoking automobile ahead of me and I had to breathe the fumes of gas and smoke, I believe I would resort to speeding to pass that machine and get some fresh air."

Giving up his profession, a Paris beggar offers his "pitch" for sale. His advertisement reads: "For sale, present holder retiring to the country, good situation for one-legged man; neighborhood of the Eiffel; hours of work, 2 p. m. to 7 p. m. Receipts $2.40 to $3.16. Regular passers-by, children and strangers. Or any innateness would suit."

In the Manchester, England, police court the special Jewish form of oath concluding with the words, "So help you, Jehovah," has, at the request of the Jewish board of deputies, been abandoned, the reason being that the difference of formula was both un-Jewish and unnecessary. The city coroner has also decided to administer the same form of oath, concluding with the phrase, "So help you, God," to both Christian and Jewish jurymen, the only difference being that the latter will swear with head covered and on the Old Testament.

Two girls relating their experience in Japan, in the Wide World Magazine give a glimpse of traveling by night by rail in the country of the chrysanthemum. They write: "The train was crowded with Japanese, and when night came the long seat was divided up into portions, the upper berths were pulled down, and we all huddled into our respective bunks, men and women mixed up together. It was distinctly trying to be obliged to hoist one's self up into a high upper berth before a mixed assembly, and more trying still to descend in the morning with the very incomplete toilet which one was enabled to make in a reclining position, but the blissful ignorance of our Japanese neighbor that there was anything unusual in such a proceeding considerably relieved our embarrassment. His attitude and calm matter of factness were very reassuring, and the wonderfully cheerful conductor who brushed our clothes and fastened our blouses seemed to consider himself specially suited for the post of lady's maid."

At the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Red Church every one is busily engaged in transforming the rooms into a bower of beauty for the wedding of Miss Gladys, which is to be solemnized tomorrow evening. The appointments are to be quite elaborate and beautiful, with the color scheme a harmonious blending of pink and green. There is a large circle of relatives who will be present for the ceremony, several coming from a distance.

Miss Eloise Mendonhall, who will be the maid of honor, came down with Mrs. Alexander Pantagos from Seattle for the wedding. Mrs. Pantagos, who was Miss Lois Mendonhall, will play violin selections during the ceremony. It is seldom that a bride is fortunate in having a group of cousins to attend her at such an important event in her life.

Since the announcement of her engagement last fall, Miss Church has been continuously feted. Several pretty affairs are already being planned for the young couple upon their return from their honeymoon journey.

ARTIST SURPRISE FRIENDS.

A wedding that comes as a complete surprise is that of Charles Rollo Peters and Mrs. Constance Mayes, which is to be solemnized in Monterey tomorrow. The bride-to-be is a charming English woman, who has been enjoying the winter at Del Monte. Although there had been a friendship existing between Mrs. Mayes and the artist, not even their most intimate friends suspected an engagement.

Peters is one of the well-known California artists and for several years has made his home at his picturesque studio at Monterey.

The wedding will be solemnized with a quiet ceremony and will be witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. His mother, Mrs. Charles Peters, and his sister, Mrs. Robert J. Woods, went down to Del Monte today to be present at the wedding. Mr. Peters and his bride will probably take a honeymoon trip to Europe, and upon their return will make their home in Monterey.

MOTHER DESERTS CULT TO REMAIN WITH HER BABY

TACOMA, Wash., April 8. — A dramatic incident at the Snohomish station today marked the departure of the remnant of the Robinson religious colony for Monterey, California. Just before the train pulled out, A. Bickford, to prevent the breaking up of his family circle, grabbed his baby from his wife's arm, and told her that if she followed the colonists she must do so without the child.

She gave up the trip, and Bickford returned home, accompanied by the crestfallen woman and their four children. Twenty-seven cultists and half a dozen dogs were required to transport the colonists to their new home. The colony buildings, the large rambling unpainted dwellings, stand Saturday one time the colony, under the leadership of Daniel Robinson, flourished and in two years grew into a populous settlement. Robinson left for California some years ago. Since then the colonists have departed, either to remote places, whence they were originally "called" by the strange cult, or to California to cast their lot again with Robinson. During the past few months the colonists have been disposing of their stock and lands, until now all have gone, except three or four, who are closing up their business.

GROOM IN QUARANTINE; WEDDING POSTPONED

BOSTON, April 8. — Again have the nuptials of Edith Fay, actress, and the physician Lesley B. The bride, who is a member of the Robinson colony, has been quarantined since the vessel was quarantined. Nobody has been permitted to leave her. Mrs. Fay arrived last Tuesday.

4000 WOMEN SIGN TARIFF PETITION

Protest Against Stocking Tax Drawn Up by Big Department Store.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8. — A petition addressed to Congress, protesting against the proposed Payne bill fixing a tariff on women's hosiery, gloves, etc., has been drawn up by one of the big department stores in this city, and already nearly four thousand women have signed it. The petition is open to signature today and tomorrow.

Concerning the new cotton schedule, one of the leading merchants said yesterday: "Importers throughout the United States are voicing their protest against the method of changing the cotton goods schedule as embodied in the Payne tariff bill, and are demanding that the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives and the Finance Committee of the United States Senate give consideration to the combined protest."

"If the bill is allowed to become a law, it will put the majority of importers out of business and will also seriously involve all classes of drygoods merchants. The object of this law is to create precisely the same conditions in the cotton goods industry as exist in the steel and other industries, by which American manufacturers are enabled to sell goods in America at a higher price than the same goods can be obtained in Europe."

BIG WAREHOUSE BURNED AT LOSS OF $80,000

MARSHFIELD, Ore., April 8. — The City Warehouse at North Bend burned at an early hour this morning. The fire started from an unknown cause. The contents of the building were also destroyed, entailing a total estimated loss of $80,000. The building was saved from destruction only through the strenuous efforts of the fire department of North Bend, assisted by citizens of both North Bend and Marshfield.

TRAIN CREW'S NARROW ESCAPE ON THE DESERT

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., April 8. — News of a Salt Lake freight crew's escape from death Monday morning on the Cima grade, far out on the desert, has just been received here. A head-on engine on a fruit train of forty cars suddenly blew up, completely wrecking the engine. Engineer Holly Harmon and his fireman escaped with hardly a scratch.

As the locomotive went to pieces the train was brought to a sharp halt, and instantly the big "hog" which was pushing the train up the grade from the rear crashed through the caboose, smashing it to kindling. Conductor Archibald and two of his crew were in the caboose eating breakfast. Suddenly the floor came down and the men were hurled into the air. One of the men was killed, and the other two were seriously injured. The engine was completely wrecked, and the train was left a tangled mass of twisted metal.

Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything, and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

Georgia's State Chemist Praises Cottolene

J. H. McCandless, State Chemist of Georgia, before a recent gathering of Cotton Seed men, gave emphatic praise to the high quality of Cottolene. He said:

"The sale of this product and the proclamation that it is made of cotton seed oil have done more to bring cotton seed oil truthfully and favorably before the public than anything else in recent history."

Mr. McCandless then pointed out how a pure, refined, vegetable oil basis, such as is in Cottolene, is the only assurance a woman has of a clean, digestible, cooking product.

It seems a positive wonder in the light of all that has lately been said and written, and of what is known of lard, where it comes from, of what it may be made, and how little chance there is to get pure lard, that anyone will continue its use, when pure, sweet and healthful Cottolene can be so easily obtained.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

DE FREMERY WAS NOT SUBPOENAED

Server Told He Was Ill, While Financier Slipped Away to the East

James L. De Fremery, until very recently a president and director of the Union National Bank, was ordered to give his deposition on behalf of the plaintiff in the suit of the Burrell Construction Company against the Union National Bank of Oakland. The time fixed upon which such deposition should be given was Tuesday, the 6th day of April, 1909, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon. Prior to that date and for several days an officer had attempted to serve Mr. De Fremery with a subpoena issued by the clerk in pursuance of the order of the court. During this time it was claimed by persons in and about the residence of Mr. De Fremery that he was at home, but too ill to be seen, and such representations were made from day to day, when suddenly a new tack was resorted to and the summoning officer

WOMAN, PALE AND HAGGARD, IN COURT

Accused Slayer of Husband on Verge of Collapse; Prosecution Rests Case.

LYONS, N. Y., April 9.—Mrs. Georgia Alvin Sampson is to all appearances, on the verge of a breakdown from the strain to which she has been subjected since the beginning here on Monday of her trial for the murder of her husband, Harry Sampson. She did not sleep at all last night and pleaded today with her attorneys for the privilege of going on the stand and explaining everything. The young prisoner is pale and haggard. In court today no new facts of importance were elicited. The prosecution closed its case and the usual motions for dismissal were made by the defense and denied by the court. George B. Thimblepugh then opened the case for the defense. It was ecclly told that Mr. De Fremery had taken his departure for the East. It is supposed that he got his physical consent while making his escape beyond the jurisdiction of the court.

Elaborate preparation are being made for the dancing party to be given by the Berkeley Institute No. 58, Young Ladies' Institute, at Masonic Temple, corner of Bancroft way and Shattuck avenue, Berkeley, Tuesday evening, April 20. This is the second affair of its kind given by this institute, which was organized last autumn, and it promises to be a success. All arrangements are in the hands of the following committee: Misses Blanche M. Zell, Nora I. Rowe, Marie Bader, Ethel Farrell, Josephine Raspiiller, Mary C. Rowe, Edna C. Zell, Lucile Street, Amelia Zaniboni, Laurence Peckin, Adelle Smith, Laura Colburn and Mrs. E. Bohannon.

MURPHY TO STAND TRIAL FOR BURGLARY

Joseph Murphy was found over to the Superior court on the charge of burglary this morning. He is accused of having robbed the home of Mrs. Carrie E. Eves, at 1961 Myrtle street on January 24th. Murphy is alleged, called at the home of Mrs. Eves on the date mentioned. He said he was an assessor, and was around the house by the woman, whom he had departed, the woman missed her purse, handbag, her gold watch and two rings. Murphy was later apprehended. Captain of Detectives Peterson put Murphy on the mat, after his arrest, and he reluctantly admitted that he was the one that had perpetrated many crimes attributed to him by the police.

FALLS 30 FEET WHEN SCAFFOLD GIVES WAY

R. W. Pritchard, a painter residing at 359 Sanchez street, narrowly escaped death last evening. While painting a bulletin board at the corner of Thirty-sixth street and San Pablo avenue, the scaffold he was on gave away and precipitated him to the ground, a distance of about thirty feet. Fortunately for Pritchard the only damage he experienced from the fall was a sprained ankle and a number of bruises.

BRIDE DEPARTS; HE TAKES POISON

Ernest Creason, Failing to Locate Wife, Takes Dose of Bichloride of Mercury

Just when her honeymoon was at its zenith and her cup of married bliss was full to running over, a bright fell upon the life of Mrs. Ernest Creason of 316 Tenth street and drove her last Wednesday night from her young husband of three weeks. She left no note of explanation nor any clue to her whereabouts, and the sequel of her abandonment occurred at an early hour this morning, when Creason, who is an attaché of Slade's cigar store at 1010 Washington street, made a sensational attempt to commit suicide. Taking his loads of mercury and this "over" and the remorse and grief that racked him, as a result of the disastrous culmination of their brief married life. But the plans he had for self-destruction miscarried. His means as he laid in his chamber, waiting in pain from the poison he had taken, aroused Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hovey, with whom the Creasons had lived since their recent marriage. They took in the situation at a glance and called the police, who, in his chamber, waiting in pain from the poison he had taken, aroused Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hovey, with whom the Creasons had lived since their recent marriage. They took in the situation at a glance and called the police, who, in his chamber, waiting in pain from the poison he had taken, aroused Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hovey, with whom the Creasons had lived since their recent marriage.

Pretty Manicurist

Creason's bride was Miss Lenora Plummer, a pretty manicurist, who had been employed in a barber shop near the Ball Theater. They were married in San Francisco less than a month ago, and returning to Oakland took up their abode in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hovey. They were devoted to each other. It was on Monday or Tuesday of this week that Mrs. Creason had a violent scene with her husband which ended in the bride suddenly disappearing from her home Wednesday night. Creason was distressed and went blindly forth through the streets in the hope of finding some clue to her whereabouts. He was in mind and body from worry and wandering. Creason sought temporary consolation and relief in the "cup" of "cheers" and before evening he returned to his rooms pretty well under the influence of liquor. Then he tried to end it all with poison. Young Creason is well known in Oakland, where he has resided the greater part of the twenty-three years he has claim to. His mother lives in Point Richmond and besides a brother, who is a bartender at the Townsend street depot of the Southern Pacific in San Francisco, he has another brother, C. L. Creason, owner of the Scandinavian drugstore at Twenty-fourth street and Telegraph avenue. It was at this stand that J. B. Clifton, under sentence for life for being an habitual criminal and shooting at J. M. Barry, the clerk, while trying to hold him up, terminated his criminal career.

IMPROVERS MEET THIS EVENING

The Clinton Club of East Oakland to Elect Officers at Annual Gathering

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Clinton Improvement Club will be held this evening in the quarters of the organization in Washington Hall, at the intersection of Sixth avenue and East Twelfth street. The occasion will be one of great interest and importance to the residents of that section of the city, for the reason that the organization has been formed for the purpose of advancing the interests of that part of Oakland. The club has been in existence for a number of years and has consistently lived up to the purpose for which it was established, and it may be said that it has been successful in securing a number of the improvements which were eagerly desired by the people in that part of the city.

The officers generally have been inspired by the proper spirit to make the organization a success, and the members hope that the men who will be chosen tonight will emulate the example of those who have guided the club in the past. The president is J. E. Sanford and the secretary is L. N. Cobbleddick, who was recently elected to the position of Councilman from that section of the city.

The management of the organization hopes that there will be a large attendance of members, and there is no doubt that the meeting will be one of the most largely attended which has been held in the history of the club.

LUNBER PROBLEM CONFRONTS WORLD

If Forests Are Not Preserved
Timber Will Be at Premium

Germany faced the same great timber supply problem early in the nineteenth century that the United States faces today, and in solving it developed heavy machinery and a system of forest management which are models for the rest of the world.

A study of the system of forest management and wood utilization in the centuries offers many interesting comparisons. The United States takes 250 cubic feet per capita annually from the forests; Germany uses but 37, and Sweden, this country is already using seven times as much timber per capita as is Germany. American forests are now producing not more than 12 cubic feet per acre, German forests are producing 48 cubic feet per acre annually. Germany has reduced waste and consumption and increased production.

Has Some Opportunities
The United States has as rapidly growing trees and as good soil as Germany, and foresters say it is reasonable to think that this country will be just as successful as the European country in high per acre production, when away

ANARCHIST CALLED BIGAMIST

Under Law, Government Can Deport Her as Wife of Foreigner

PITTSBURG, Pa. April 9.—A movement to rid the country of Emma Goldman, the anarchist, and which was formulated and worked out in Pittsburgh, was given additional impetus yesterday when Palmer S. Chambers, assistant United States attorney at Pittsburgh, and John Greenberg, government inspector of the Department of Commerce and Labor at the port of New York, assisted by information given by the Chicago police secured a decree in the United States courts of Western New York, in annulling the naturalization papers of Jacob Kersner, whom the government claims is the real husband of the female anarchist. The decree in cancellation of citizenship was handed down by Judge Hazel.

To Be Kept Out

Kersner, who is now supposed to be in San Francisco near Goldman and her alleged husband, August Berkman, being now disfranchised is to be deported, and under a ruling of the highest courts of the land it is claimed that the woman, as the legal wife of Kersner, must leave the country with him. Once out she never will be permitted to return. It is thought that Berkman probably will follow her, in which event he would have trouble again coming into the country.

It was found by the Government that Kersner was married to Emma Goldman in Rochester, N. Y., in 1887, and in 1888 the pair were divorced under the Jewish laws, but two months after the divorce came together again as man and wife. This, it is claimed, would invalidate even the Jewish divorce of the United States but recognize that divorce as binding. A short time after Emma took up with Berkman, living with him in New York and after he was released from the penitentiary here after his long sentence for attempting to kill H. C. Fitch who was married to him in New Jersey. The Government in completing its case now claims the woman is a bigamist also and as Kersner's wife and also as a bigamist is to be deported with him.

Perjury, She Says.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Emma Goldman, the anarchist, whose husband's naturalization papers were cancelled yesterday by the United States Circuit Court at Buffalo a move which may lead to her exclusion from this country, is now in New York. When told of the court's decision she said:

"I am fully prepared to protect myself and my rights as a free citizen. This action in Buffalo is taken on perjured testimony and I will prove it when the time comes. I came here twenty-five years ago with my parents and brothers and sisters and settled in Rochester. When I was 18 years old, or in 1888, I was married to Jacob Kersner. I don't know how long he had been here at that time but he talked English very well. He was 31 years old at the time. I have never been divorced from my husband nor have I seen him in sixteen years. He may be dead for all I know. He disappeared from Rochester long ago and service was made on him in this action by publication."

She said that the story that she is married to Alexander Berkman is false and that her only relations with him have been in the publication of the paper, "Mother Earth."

Our Advantage—and Yours

In owning and operating our New York workshops we have a decided advantage over every other retailer. In the first place, we are right in the heart of New York (Fifth Avenue and Fourteenth Street), have our fingers on the pulse of fashion, feel with lightning rapidity its slightest change and are fully two months ahead of others here in our styles.

Then we personally see that our clothing is made properly—that each tailorman does the best work—and last, but not least, we have no wholesaler's profit to pay, and therefore none to charge you with. Your advantage in buying of S. N. Wood & Co. is therefore self-apparent. You not only save at least one-third, which is a big item in itself, but you get the very best clothing and the very latest styles.

Compare your purchase here with any offered elsewhere. After you have seen how much better it LOOKS, WEAR it—if it don't PROVE its worth bring it back and we'll pay you what you paid us for it. That's what we think of our clothing.

MARQUIS WHO IS DEMOCRATIC

Announced Trip Around World and Denied Engagement Rumor.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—A very democratic Marquis, and one who is not too snobbish to mingle with the other guests in the lobby of the St. Francis Hotel, registered at that hostelry yesterday preliminary to starting on a trip around the world. He is the Marquis Diego Marcone, nephew of Leopoldo Shipprich, a famous millionaire rancher of Ventura, who died recently and a claimant of a $2,000,000 interest in the estate of the late rancher.

The fact that the Marquis is contemplating an extensive trip abroad and, alone, seems to contradict a report made about a week ago, to the effect that the Marquis was to marry Miss Theo Cagney, formerly of the Orpheum circuit and

However, neither the Marquis nor Miss Cagney will make any positive assertion as to whether or not an engagement exists between them, and their friends and acquaintances must simply await developments.

BLAKE'S ILLNESS DELAYS THE TRIAL

Still Reading His Testimony in the Case Against Newburgh.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Conners are having a hard time these days in the Newburgh trial. The continued illness of E. A. S. Blake has forced them to read at length the long drawn out testimony of the prosecution's star witness, covering some thousands of pages. District Attorney Jackson and Attorney Bert Schlegel are taking turns, the former reading the direct and the latter the cross-examination.

The jury, tired from the closeness of the court room during these hot days and worn out by the monotonous trend of the proceedings, apparently takes but little interest in what is going on, spending ing their time in watching the audience

It is expected that Blake's testimony will be finished by noon tomorrow and that the case will finally be placed in the hands of the jury by next Thursday.

HUMANE OFFICER DOES GOOD WORK

Numerous Cases Attended to During Past Month—old of in Report.

At the April meeting of the directors of the Oakland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of Alameda County, the report of the special humane officer employed by the society showed that much had been accomplished during the past month.

In March 665 animals were examined and 9 were lame, 2 had injured galled shoulders, 1 had injured without sties, 10 warnings were given where animals were overworked, 51 cases of cruelty were reported to the society, 3 animals were reported to the society, 3 small animals sick, injured beyond re-co cry, or abandoned, were humanely destroyed, 6 horses unfit for work were taken from harness, 7 cubs were made for the ambulance. There were two arrests, one of which was that of a man who left his horse standing for five hours in the cold and pouring rain, while he was visiting a sacon.

Numerous complaints reach the society concerning the overdriving of old, half-blind, worn-out horses. The officer is keeping a sharp lookout for these cases. Complaints of boys bent upon trapping and shooting birds have been made, and a case which will be kept upon boys out with traps and guns.

The following committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual meeting of the society, which takes place on the 6th of May: Mrs. A. P. Holland, Mrs. J. H. Mathews, Mrs. W. C. Johnston.

ANNOUNCEMENT

ARTISTIC MENU IS THE PRODUCT OF SMITH BROS.

Success of the Opening of the Forum Partly Due to Perfection of Engraved Invitations

Regarding things artistic in the way of invitations and menus, Oakland is certainly taking her proper place. The invitation to a dinner and the menu card from which one selects his or her viands are as much an addition to that dinner as is appropriate to a beautiful woman or a handsome man. So it is with a feeling of local pride that we point out the artistic beauty of the invitations, reply, and table cards and the menu which Smith Bros. the stationers, furnished to Mr. Gustav Mann for the opening of the Forum last night.

Beginning with the cutting of the copper plates, the modeling of the composition, the selection of the type, the setting of the type, the proofing, the printing, the binding, the finishing, the delivery, the work was interested to competent hands all under the eye of the head of the engraving department. This is equally true of the printing department into whose hands the production of the beautiful menu was entrusted. The selection of the stock, the drawing of the original design, the making of the color blocks, the careful type and press work, all being followed out in detail, goes to show that Smith Bros. first consideration in work of this kind is perfection.

In short, all concerned are to be congratulated—Mr. Mann for his successful efforts to give Oakland a really fine and dining-room, second to none on the coast, in which the elite of our city may enjoy a dinner de luxe, perfectly appointed and served, to which they have been bidden by the medium of an engraved invitation, and being able to make choice of the good things edible from a menu, card which is truly a fine example of the "Printer's Art."

THINKS PREACHER SHOULD ENTER INTO POLITICS

That the preacher should be interested in politics in business, was the attitude of Rev. G. M. Richmond in his sermon at the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Third, fourth and Market streets last night. The preacher should be like the prophets of old, who preached righteousness and denounced evil wherever it was to be found in the church, in commerce in capital or in labor.

COURT SAYS FATHER MAY SPANK DAUGHTER

DETROIT, April 9.—In the police court here today Justice Jeffers upheld the right of a father to administer the old fashioned spanking to his seventeen-year-old daughter, even if her dignity suffered. Margaret Grandin, aged seventeen, had her father arrested for disturbing the peace. Grandin told the judge that the punishment was part of an effort to keep his daughter away from cheap theaters and the judge decided that moderate spanking of young women of seventeen was permissible.

After a search of many hours following the finding of a note telling of their intended suicide together. Through the forehead of each was a powder burned wound. A revolver lay beneath them.

The young couple left their homes at 1 o'clock Monday morning. They wrote a note saying they would drown themselves together at a stated place in the river. Nothing has been learned indicating any reason for their decision to die.

BLOW ON THE HEAD REDUCES HIS HEIGHT INCH AND HALF

M. C. RIGNEY, who for a number of years was connected with the Derby Lumber Company of this city, and who more recently has been engaged in the attempt to extract the golden metal from the resistant ore of Calaveras county, was never intended by nature to be a large man, but he is smaller now than he ever was before.

He has been in the latter condition only for a few months, past and is anxious to learn whether or not he is to remain in that condition the rest of his life.

He attends to his business now, carrying his head rather to one side, and that member at the same time seems to rest nearer to his shoulder than was formerly the case. The neck seems more of a less swollen condition when he wishes to turn his head he does so at the expense of straining some of the cords, which is attended with intense pain.

Inch and Half Shorter

Rigney's explanation of these peculiarities is that he has lost one and a half inches in height, that whereas, he was formerly 5 feet 5 1/2 inches tall, he is now only 5 feet 4 inches.

Rigney feels aggrieved over his loss and does not like to discuss the matter for the reason that his story is received with incredulity on the part of the few people to whom he has confided the details of his curtailment.

"Yes," he said to a representative of THE TRIBUNE today, when questioned about the matter, "I have lost an inch and a half of my height. I am suffering from it, too, but I am thankful that in losing that amount in stature I did not at the same time, lose my life."

"I'll tell you how it happened. A few months ago I was at the bottom of a 52-foot shaft. In the Mount Diablo mine, in Calaveras county, where I have been working for a number of years. I was digging a tunnel about 3 feet square at the bottom of the shaft. I had been working down and had just about straightened up to rest for a moment when I heard some one cry out 'Look out!'

"I had just time to realize that the shaft bucket had in some manner become detached from the cable and was flying down the track with the rapidity of light almost to the bottom of the shaft."

"The place in which I was working was about 5 feet below the end of the track, and, just as the bucket came to a sudden stop, I received a blow on the side of the head which knocked me down. It was only a glancing blow. If I had received the full force I would have been cut in halves."

Warning Saves Life

"The warning, slight as it was, enabled me to save myself by turning my head partly away, but not in time to prevent being struck, as I have told you."

"I was taken out of the shaft to the surface and laid on the ground, and at first it was supposed that I was dead. I was unconscious for a number of hours, but afterwards gained my faculties. But for months my head felt as if it was about to split open. The pain has not wholly left me yet, although the accident happened in October of last year. The doctors did all they could to relieve me, but they have not altogether been successful."

"The veins and cords of my neck have swollen and become irritable, and pain me when I want to look around. When I was able to get around my friends used to joke me by saying that I had taken a dangerous method of reducing my height. I used to enjoy the joke as much as any other person, and one day, in the presence of some of my friends at Mountain Ranch, I had myself measured, and was horrified to discover that I was only 5 feet 4 inches in height when my full height ought to be 5 feet 5 1/2 inches."

It's No Joking Matter

"It then came to the conclusion that it was no joking matter, and then we agreed that the blow I had sustained on the head had reduced my stature by an inch and a half."

"There were some of the persons at Mountain Ranch who were inclined to the belief that I did not really know what my real height was, so we referred to the great register, as also to the description of myself which was filed where I had registered, and these records proved that my natural height was 5 feet 5 1/2 inches."

Rigney says what can not be cured must be endured, and further, that he has no intention of applying to any of the tacticians in the East who claim that they can make individuals increase their stature to a desired degree, in order to regain that lost one inch and a half.

WATSON CLOSES FIGHT FOR OIL TRUST

No Evidence to Show Defendant Corporation Guilty, Says Lawyer.

ROSENTHAL TO DISCUSS "FACTS" IN THE CASE

"It's Facts--Facts," Says Famous Attorney. "That Win Lawsuits."

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—David T. Watson, Pittsburg's most noted corporation lawyer, today completed his argument upon the law from the viewpoint of the defense in the government suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. Watson to a great degree repeated his argument of yesterday afternoon, dwelling with more particularity upon the details of the law as he insisted it should be construed by the court. The Pittsburg lawyer strongly emphasized his first legal contention that it mattered not what the defendants might have done in former days, the only question for the court was whether the Standard Oil Company was engaged in restraining commerce and on engaging in unfair competition on November 15, 1906 when the bill of complaint was filed against them.

Watson's Position

Watson also took issue with Prosecutor Kellogg that the men forming the Standard were liable and guilty as alleged under the federal common law. He is not today and never was a criminal under the federal common law, declared Watson. "Nor is there in all this great mass of testimony a single sentence of evidence to prove that the defendants were guilty of a violation of any provisions of the Sherman act on November 15, 1906 and that I contend is the only proposition before this honorable court for review."

Watson's argument was from recovered from his temporary indisposition will take up the argument of the defense following Watson.

It is expected that the noted Chicago lawyer will secure the reversal of the government's $29,000,000 fine would discuss the law in the case. Mr. Rosenthal declares, however, that he will discuss facts.

To Discuss "Facts"

"It's facts--facts," said he "that win lawsuits."

The proposition of the evidence to which the Standard will confine itself will be a resume of the alleged railway rate discrimination; a subject with which he is probably as familiar as any attorney in the country. It is a contention of Rosenthal that the Standard never engaged in any special favoritism in the matter of railway rates from Pittsburg, where the Standard's great refinery is located, that any other shipper could not have secured for the mere asking.

Attorney Kellogg, for the government, included in his side of the case several hundred thousand words taken from the record of the Chicago case, which he hoped would assist in supporting his contention of rate discrimination. The reversal of that case leaves this contention of no special moment, but notwithstanding it is to this phase of the government's claims that Rosenthal will devote the greater portion of his time.

MRS. SELBY 'BOUGHT OFF,' SAYS MRS. M'CLAUGHRY

DOESN'T ADMIT SHE IS SISTER

Declares It Was Cheaper to Compromise Than to Fight Contest.

Mrs. Anita Baldwin McLaughry, daughter of the late E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin, has broken the silence she has maintained since her father's death, in the following interview:

"There seems some misconception of the agreement which was entered into between my half sister, Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, and myself on the one side and Mrs. Selby of Oakland on the other," she said.

"This agreement was to the effect that Mrs. Selby should receive a certain amount from us in satisfaction of any claims she might put forward to an interest in the estate. It did not admit that she was daddy's daughter, though she seemed to think she was. There was no admission of any relationship whatever in the terms of the settlement.

Divorce Follows.

"My father's first wife was Sarah Ann Gurr, aunt to H. Gurr, executor of the will, and mother of Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker. There was a divorce and she married a Mr. Alden and had another daughter, Edith, now Mrs. Daniels, who lives near Arcadia. "His second wife was Abbie McCarthy, who was a widow with a son and a daughter when she married daddy. They were divorced. The racehorse was named for her.

Only Child.

"Then father married Jennie V. Dexter, daughter of Colonel Peter Dexter, of the Texas Rangers, a veteran of the Mexican War. She died in 1881 and I was their only child. "His fourth wife was Lilly Bennett, who was left a widow and childless at his death.

"These facts speak for themselves. As to the settlements made by my half-sister and myself with Mrs. E. J. Baldwin, the widow and Mrs. Selby of Oakland, they were guided by business practice solely. My father had submitted to the estimates of the cost of litigation in case the contents came into court. We found we could settle the case for less than the estimated cost of fighting them, and though we would have assuredly won in the end, under the circumstances, have been a useless expenditure of money, and the probable cause of bitterness that would have been deplorable.

'Bought Off.'

"Settlement was made first with Mrs. E. J. Baldwin, the widow. Having satisfactorily adjusted the matter and removed one party in interest from the field, Mrs. Stocker and I bought off Mrs. Selby of Oakland, Mrs. Baldwin having nothing to do with it, as she was not an interested party.

"If I say 'bought off' in this sense: Our legal advice was to the effect that Mrs. Selby would assuredly have lost her case in the courts, and anything paid to her in excess of the $50,000 named in the will might be considered a bribe for her non-interference in the probating of the will and the settling of the estate.

Settlement Secret.

"No, I do not care to say what amount was paid in either of these settlements. It may be understood to be more than the requested amount, but I will not attempt to satisfy those who contemplated contents, and yet less than the probable cost of opposing the contents. "The will has now been admitted to probate, and Mrs. McLaughry has returned from Los Angeles, where she went to attend to our interests in the proceedings.

BODY OF MARTYR MET BY POLICE

Remains of Detective Lieut. Jos. Petrosino Arrives in New York.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Flags flying at half mast above the city hall and police headquarters today marked the arrival on the steamer Flavinia of the body of Lieut. Jos. Petrosino, of the New York Police Department, who was assassinated in Palermo, Italy, on March 12, while engaged in protecting America against Sicilian criminals. The police department, city officials, Italian societies and citizens will unite in activities further expression of tribute to Petrosino on Monday when his funeral will be held.

Guarded by Police

On arriving at the quarantine station today the Flavinia was met by the police boat patrol to which the body of the martyr was transferred and conveyed to the landing place at the Battery. Thence the body was escorted to the Petrosino home, to be guarded by police until after the funeral.

The transfer of the body from the ship to the patrol was witnessed by a committee of citizens including a number of prominent Italians, who went down the harbor on a tug and participated in the ceremonies attending the landing. Until the day of the funeral mourning flags will be flown from hundreds of windows in the Italian colonies.

Honor for the Dead

Unusual honors expressive of the city's appreciation of Petrosino's courage and devotion to duty will be shown during the funeral on Monday. A high mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral and after the services the body

BALDWIN'S WIDOW THOUGHT TO HAVE SECURED MILLION

LOS ANGELES, April 8.—Mrs. Lilly Bennett Baldwin, a successful applicant in the Probate Court yesterday for a monthly allowance to support herself pending the return of the inventory of the property left her by E. J. Baldwin, Judge Rives made an order granting $100 a day, or $3000 a month, until the settlement is completed. She stated in the petition that she has no estate.

This allowance is the first intimation of what the widow secured by the compromise of her threatened contest of "Lucky's" will. That instrument left her property valued at approximately $200,000, which at a 5 per cent would yield $10,000 a year. The temporary allowance—and these are made by courts on a basis of two-thirds as a rule—is 5 per cent on $300,000, so that Mrs. Baldwin evidently received $900,000, and probably $1,000,000, as her portion of the estate by agreement with the other heirs.

ALL 'REAL' BOYS VIOLATE THE LAW

Probation Officer Ruess Tells Mothers of Good of the Juvenile Court.

"A child is not a lawbreaker just because he is brought up in the Juvenile Court," said Probation Officer Ruess before the Mothers' Club of the Ocean View Public School yesterday.

The probation officer explained that under the new juvenile law there are 15 different classes of children coming within the jurisdiction of the Juvenile court, only four of these classes strictly including law-breakers. The child who is sent out to beg, who is homeless, who has no living parents or guardian, who is destitute, whose home is an immoral place, who frequents the company of reputed criminals, who visits places where liquor is sold, who refuses to obey reasonable parental instructions, whose father is a deserter or drunkard, who is truant, or who habitually uses cigarettes or intoxicating liquors, or drugs, are all, as well as the child who violates a law, dealt with in the Juvenile Court. The court's object is parental, not to punish the child, but to help the parent to keep the child on the good road, or to find a home for the homeless or abused child.

Bad Boy Explained

The subject of the address was "The Bad Boy Explained," and the speaker asserted that practically all red-blooded boys violate some laws some time during their boyhood, as the husbands of the Mothers' Club would testify. The Juvenile Court with such a child, if convicted with in formal court at all, simply aims to keep the instance of law-breaking from becoming a habit. The child must be taught the rules of the social game of civilization.

Weakness inside and temptation outside explain the bad boy. To diminish his tribe strengthen moral fiber and self-control in the home, and diminish temptations. The normal boy becomes a good citizen if prepared by the moral influence of good example and straight instruction in a good environment.

Ruess is to address a Fathers' Night meeting of the Ocean View Mothers' Club on April 21st on Good Boys, Bad Boys and Taxes.

DEPENDABLE PROPRIETARY MEDICINES

It must be admitted by every intelligent, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for thirty years, and today hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, with out possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

YOUNG PEOPLE PLAN BIG COMEDY FARCE

The young people of the Market Street Congregational Church are planning to give a farce and entertainment on Friday evening, April 23rd, which promises to be very pleasing. The title of the farce is, "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone," and as the name implies the play centers about a telephone in the home of Mrs. Oakley and the complications which arise from messages which are not received by the proper persons or are misinterpreted. Mrs. Oakley, Mrs. Mae Hardin, Constance, her friend, Miss Hazel Land, Mary, the cook, Miss Louise Lisbon, Emma, the maid, Miss Ruth Hale, and as the name implies the play centers about a telephone in the home of Mrs. Oakley and the complications which arise from messages which are not received by the proper persons or are misinterpreted.

will be escorted to Calvary cemetery by a parade composed of police, military and many Italian societies. "Taps" will be sounded at the grave. Many flowers, including a wreath from Mayor McCallum, have been sent to the Petrosino home and a movement is under way to provide Mrs. Petrosino and the detective's family with a permanent home and ample funds.

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery elements, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affection. S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its nutritious, red corpuscles, and enriches it in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S. the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and surely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write.

NEW ANGLE OF CIVIL SERVICE

Applicants Must Be Examined In States Where They Legally Reside.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—"The records of the civil service commission and of the civil departments in Washington, disclose the assignment of a vast number of government employees to various states in which, as a matter of fact, the never resided," said Senator Follette. He is chairman of the committee on census which has reported an amendment to the census bill requiring applicants for positions within the general classified service of the government to take their examinations in the states to which they are accredited as legal residents.

To Correct Abuse

It was to correct this abuse of the civil service law which requires a permanent or employees of the civil service among the several states and territories that the amendment was made," said the Senator. "Many people come to Washington, live here for 2 or 3 years and their children claim the former residence of the father, although they may never have been in the state for the purpose of apportionment. This is not in accordance with the spirit of the civil service law and either the section requiring apportionment should be repealed or the apportionment should be made on a basis of actual residence."

RAISIN BREAD IS THE FRESNO FAD

Recipes for That and Candy Are Being Sent Broadcast to Boom Raisin Day.

FRESNO April 9.—Raisin bread will undoubtedly be made in every bakery in the United States on California Raisin Day, April 30th, as the raisin committee is sending recipes for it to all the bakers' unions in the country and to every bakery, and as it requires about six ounces of raisins to every loaf of raisin bread, it is expected that many tons of raisins will be a tea in this form on Raisin Day.

The committee hopes that the introduction of raisin bread will spread all over the country, and after Raisin Day will become a staple product of the bakery.

The Fresno bakers are making it every day, and all the hotels are serving it. The ordinary bread is becoming almost unknown here, and if raisin bread gets a start in the United States it will help solve the problem of marketing the California crop.

Both seeded and seedless raisins are used and they impart a delicious flavor to the bread, besides making it more sustaining and healthy.

Bread and Candy

Besides bread, raisins are being made into candy dipped in chocolate and wrapped in a thin candy sheet in a form known as raisin crystals, and the raisin committee is sending out the recipes to candy-makers all over the country, urging them to make raisin candy and bring attention to the fact that it is one of the best forms of candy for children, as well as for anybody who eats candy. It is expected that many tons of raisins will be consumed annually in the form of candy.

From all over the nation letters are coming to the committee assuring the members that raisins will be served up in hotels and restaurants, steamships, railroad trains and at picnics, church festivals and other gatherings.

Theatrical companies in the East have sent letters informing the committee that they will demand raisins while touring the country, traveling salesmen's organizations have promised their aid, and grocers from Vancouver to Oregon have asked for raisin primers and have promised to make a "special" of raisins on Raisin Day.

The raisin campaign has already covered the country, and the committee expects twenty days to work toward making Raisin Day a success.

TUB HATS ROUSE IRE OF BISHOP

Declares He Would Like to Shy Hymnbook at Headgear

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 9.—Aroused by an editorial in the Western Advocate, denouncing the large size of woman's hats, that are said to be nuisances in church by interfering with the view of worshippers, Bishop Moore, presiding in the Cincinnati Methodist Episcopal Conference, uttered the following condemnation of prevailing styles in feminine headgear.

For a woman of moderate means to pay $48 or $55, or just $19 for the plain hat without trimming is absolute wickedness.

"Outrage"

It is outrageous—nothing less. Why, one who wears a hat could buy an entire clerical outfit.

They are aggravating maddening," he continued. "One feels like taking a shot at them with a hymn book and hurling their lofty pretentiousness and pride in the dust."

It is a solemn conviction that this, which looks like such a trivial matter, amounts almost to an absolute moral offense and sin. Should not Christian women show more consideration for their fellow worshippers? Is there not something like proper care and a decent regard for the opinions of others and their convenience as well as their own? ought to influence our dress in reference to this matter of headgear?

"Imposition"

Is not the present practice a genuine imposition, not only upon good nature, but upon the rights and privileges of those who gather in the house of God?

If women must wear hats, let them wear hats that are as simple as the hats of the apostles, let them remove them as soon as they are seated in church."

HORSES SAVE THREE LOST GIRLS

Baron Von Schroeder's Daughter and Friends Anxious in Black Canyon

SAN RAFAEL, April 9.—Miss Janet von Schroeder daughter of Baron 11 von Schroeder of the Hotel Lafayette and two girl friends were lost for hours last night in the dark recesses of Black canyon a trackless gorge in the mountains a few miles from the hotel.

The young women left the hotel in the afternoon for a horseback ride. They were expected to return about 5 o'clock. When 5:30 came and they had not appeared the baron began to get anxious. At 6 his anxiety had reached the stage of consternation and hotel affairs were forgotten while guests and servants alike participated in the general excitement.

Darkness was coming rapidly on and the fear was expressed that the missing girls might have fallen victim to thugs whose depredations of late have made Marin county renowned throughout about venturing away from their homes at night.

Growing Anxious

By 6:30 o'clock Baron von Schroeder was thoroughly alarmed.

Organization of a posse, intending to go on a search into the hills for his daughter and her companions. Six of the hotel guests promptly volunteered horses, weapons and some provisions.

They set off on their ride when they were stopped by the sound of galloping hoofs and three tired and hungry young women rode up.

Miss Von Schroeder explained that she and her companions had attempted to return home by a short cut but after getting into Black canyon had been unable to find their way out. They had wandered aimlessly for a couple of hours and finally solved the problem of getting home by trusting to the horses.

The animals soon found their way out of the tangle of forest and underbrush and took the girls out on the road to San Rafael.

WEAK NERVES AND STOMACH

A CURE IN ROCK ISLAND THAT WILL INTEREST MANY

Nervous Dyspepsia Which Quickly Yielded to the Proper Tonic Treatment

When the stomach is feeble the food lies in it undigested, decays and throws on poisonous gases that distend the walls of the stomach and cause interference with the action of the heart and lungs. These gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and corrupt it and so cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissue everywhere. General bodily weakness and loss of weight result. The nerves and the brain are disturbed and discomforts, such as dizziness, hot flashes, sleeplessness, irritability and despondency originate from this source.

Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong enough to digest the food. In other words it needs a tonic that will rouse it to do the work of changing the food into nourishment. The tonic used ought to be one that will agree with the most delicate stomach.

Miss C. L. Ritchey of No. 1401 26th street at Rock Island, Ill. says: "I was sick for several months with stomach trouble and nervousness. I had no appetite and what I ate pained me and formed gas. Later I had palpitation of the heart. It was almost impossible for me to get any sleep. became run down, weak, despondent and discouraged and could not bear to have any noise around me."

"At first I thought the doctor was helping me but I really became no better. When I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I made up my mind to give them a trial. It was only a short time before I began to feel better and I could eat and what I ate pained me and formed gas. Later I had palpitation of the heart. It was almost impossible for me to get any sleep. became run down, weak, despondent and discouraged and could not bear to have any noise around me."

While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. They are perfectly safe and create no drug habit. Every dyspeptic should read our free book "What to Eat and How to Eat."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. 60 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

DELANEY SENDS WORD THAT KAUFMAN WILL GET JOHNSON

Veteran Says He Is Dark as to Pugilistic Situation—Oakland Wheelmen Will Show Tonight.

By EDDIE SMITH.

In this morning's mail we received a letter from Billy Delaney in which the veteran acknowledges that he is as much in the dark regarding the pugilistic situation in the East as we are. In part, Billy says: "Don't look on this as a letter, as I am as much in the dark as yourself in regard to the boxing outlook here and no one is able to say who is to be the one to get Johnson. Something may develop by the time you receive this note, however, and if it does I shall wire you at once. We are trying to get Johnson and if Kaufman beats Ross we will stand the best chance to get him. This fellow, Tony Ross, is a tough, strong fellow and is in great condition and Kaufman or any one else will have to fight to beat him. I have every confidence in Al, however, and feel sure that with his great improvement, we should be able to clean up on all the heavyweights. Jeffries refuses to talk fight at all."

Kaufman Is Well Liked.

Billy goes on and tells of the fine time that they have been having and the fact that in which Kaufman has been in a manner in which Kaufman has been accepted and also says that he would like to have a crack at Ketchel, but that as his man is so much the heavier he is not in the position to take the aggressive line and will have to wait for Willie Brit to make the first move and then grab the Michigan at the first chance. Delaney has friends in New York and Brooklyn who are very influential and if they are able to pull the world to pull off the boxing bouts in New York the contest between Kaufman and Ross will be decided Tuesday night. If, however, the club fails in bringing about that matter, Kaufman will have to wait for the next opportunity to meet Ross at the present at least. The Kaufman contest can therefore be taken as a test of the sincerity of the officials, for all sorts of pressure will be brought to bear to allow the club to handle it and if the bout is not pulled off or transferred to another club that can handle it, the game is a loser.

Wheelman Show Tonight.

The Oakland Wheelmen will hold their final boxing show tonight at Armory Hall on Twelfth Street. The show will be a very interesting one and will feature a number of the best amateur light weight boxers in this section of the state. The old time members of the Rolland Club remember the show as the best ever seen in this section of the state. The old time members of the Rolland Club remember the show as the best ever seen in this section of the state. Hudson and Murphy Matched.

Charles Hudson and Johnnie Murphy to match Chick Hudson and Johnnie Murphy for the main event of this month's show in San Francisco and Jimmy Reagan with Larry Dell for the second round special. The match between Hudson and Murphy will be a six-round affair between two local men. Charlie had hopes of being able to make something big this month and he might have had the permit in time, but now that the time is short he will be forced to take the best he can get. Hudson appeared in San Francisco once before when he beat Jack Ward with ease and since that time he has been trying to show that he has fought some of the best men in the country. The scrap between Reagan and Dell will be a particularly good one in which the men will be busy from the tap of the first bell.

Brit Springs Joke Again.

Willie Brit has now come out with the old-time word declaration that he will claim the championship of the world if he can defeat Johnson. He is going to make things as uncomfortable as possible for the colored man if he does not get it, but the claiming of championship before at least disposing of Kaufman is a joke and will know it. This is what Willie has to say:

"I feel that the public will support me in my stand of claiming the title for Ketchel because it is a tradition that all true American sportsmen love a fighter who is ready to fight at all times and after I claim the title for Ketchel he will be ready to meet all the heavyweights. Ketchel demands recognition merely through Jeffries' kindness in staying retired. If, however, Jeffries ultimately decides to box Johnson, I will hold my peace until the battle has been fought and then go after the winner. In regard to a match between Ketchel and Johnson, my money was placed and I jumped at two thousand dollars to hold Johnson to an agreement he made over the wire. This agreement he repudiated immediately upon my arrival in Chicago."

Phenomenal fielding, sensational base running, great hitting and all around good baseball in the game between the Invaders and the Miller's brought the flag of victory to the home team yesterday in a ten inning game at the Grove street park by the score of 8 to 2. McMillan's fielding and hitting were features of the game. He secured three of the nine hits made by his team and six put outs.

"Doc" McMillan opened up the game for the Invaders but owing to the bad condition of his arm, retired to the bench after pitching three very good innings. McMillan took his place in the Sox work in a ten inning game at the Grove street park by the score of 8 to 2. McMillan's fielding and hitting were features of the game. He secured three of the nine hits made by his team and six put outs.

When the ninth inning rolled around both teams were neck and neck. In the tenth, however, it fell to the lot of Bloomfield to bring in the winning run. The plucky little twirler landed on the ball for a three-bagger (which, by the way, cost him a leg) and the Sox were in. The Stockton pitcher allowed the next two men to walk. Sheehan then singled and Bloomfield scored, ending the game.

Ball Talk on the Rialto

Landers Stevens goes to the Grove street park every day to see the local boys in action.

Cy Townsend, Sacramento's former first base man was at the party given by a Billie, as also was George "Jolly" Croil.

A delegation from Stockton was at the game, rooted for their boys all the time. An article was published last night in one of the Sacramento papers to the effect that the Fresno club is doing the best of the local players. In speaking of the matter, said "As far as I know the club is satisfied and in a position to add to their roster."

Next Sunday will be a big day here. The Stockton fans intend to bring down 1000 strong, bringing with them a band and a large number of the local players. The attack came so sudden that the Athletics were taken clear off their feet, and before they came to willingly accepted the short end of a 7 to 1 game.

In the Coast League, Van will be the star of the morning and night. All of the Oaks' pitchers are showing up well and there should be some classy ball playing.

The merry war between the outlaws of the Coast League is going on. The merrymaking of the Portland club for the past couple of days, has been going on off the field and on the field.

Henry Barry of the Los Angeles team has landed first baseman. Paul of the Los Angeles team has landed first baseman. Paul of the Los Angeles team has landed first baseman. Paul of the Los Angeles team has landed first baseman.

That Johnny Kling, the Cal's star catcher, will join the team May 1, is the announcement made yesterday by a friend of Kling's at Kansas City.

Now that the season is drawing near in the Coast League, the players are having a change of heart in regards to "Cy" Seymour, and from the present outlook it appears as if the Sox will be again be seen in a giant uniform.

Outfielder Tom Rafferty, who played last year with Portland, and who is holding out for a better offer, has been picked up by the Cleveland Naps, declares that in the game today. "I'm going to show that I can do when I get to Cleveland."

After suffering two straight defeats the Beavers from the North pointed their bats at the Oaks yesterday and won a hard fought battle by a score of 7 to 1. The attack came so sudden that the Athletics were taken clear off their feet, and before they came to willingly accepted the short end of a 7 to 1 game.

Stim Jackson, one of the numerous batters, was sent in to take over the bat, but as quick as he sent them over the Beavers sent them out. "Hap" Logan tried to retrieve the honor of the day, but his salary was not so accurate as to walking off first that it refused to deliver any more.

Joe Garrett was the principal obstacle to the Oaks. His commanding arm and opposing batters hit the air with wild swings in endeavor to land safely on his maddening maw, but Garrett kept the first to himself.

Chambers made a fatal error in the fourth inning, allowing two runs when he let a hit with two men on base into the bleachers.

San Jose, 3; San Francisco, 1. SAN JOSE, April 9.—(Tribune.) San Jose's new recruit from the Western Association, had the Indian sign on Charlie Brown's hand of ball tossers yesterday, with the result that only two hits were made off him. He twirled phenomenal ball.

He was at times inclined to be wild but regular as a timepiece with men on the socks. Both teams were very good in the game. The pre-pitchers' pathos was the choice of the crowd. The secret:

Harahan Thinks Bill Against Railway 'Ill-Advised and Unfair.'

CHICAGO, April 9.—"I view of the fact that the Illinois Central is making an honest effort toward electrification (I think that the attempt to get a measure passed, such as the Gardner bill in the State Senate, is ill-advised and unfair."

This statement was made by J. T. Macabian, president of the Illinois Central Railroad, when asked his view upon the latest pounce of the crusade against smoke, giving cities the right to demand smokeless motive power within their corporate limits.

"If Mayor Busse is back of the move," he continued, "I am very much sur-that electrification was a good deal of a luxury and that it might cripple the road financially, had influenced the legislative move.

"Possibly so," replied Harahan. "But I think that a too serious import was placed upon his statements. Just before making them he had been given an estimate of the cost of electrifying the lines and I guess he was somewhat staggered by it."

One figure which startled W. Harahan was $6,000,000, which is the estimated cost of electrification of the passenger tracks alone.

SUNDAY'S DESSERT

Easter Sunday

DELMONICO ICE CREAM With Center of Fresh Strawberries

Unquestionably, and without reserve, the greatest Special Sunday Dessert we ever made—the most delicious—the most expensive to make—the most difficult to manufacture and the most original.

Words cannot adequately convey an idea of its perfection—a rich golden brick of delicious creamy frozen perfection—in the center a combination of fresh strawberries crushed and frozen in heavy berry cream.

Delmonico Ice Cream has created a veritable furor whenever we've made it. It caused a sensation among the chefs and epicures of New York and no one but Lehnhardt has ever been able to produce it out here.

The taste is beyond power of description. It is different from any frozen dessert you've ever tried and with the strawberry center, is finer than we've ever made it before.

It is our Easter Day Special. We've been planning it for two months.

You must not miss it. Phone early tonight or by noon tomorrow if you want your brick delivered indications are that Sunday will be a very warm day and in that case the early orders only will be assured of delivery.

If we deliver the brick to your house—packed in freezer—80c each.

If you call and carry the brick home with you Sunday—50c each. (Every brick contains a full quart or enough for 8 people.)

SPECIAL CANDY—Flavorful Walnut Chews will be made tomorrow—Special—Very fine—50c lb.

PUTTING NEW NOSE ON THEIR PATIENT

Surgeons Await With Interest
Grafting of Man's Finger on His Face.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—If George M. Kelly has no misfortune in a few days more he will have a new nose and that nose will be the ring finger of his left hand. All the surgeons in this city are interested in the operation performed at the University of California Hospital, but Dr. Harry Sherman ten days ago Kelly was taken sick several months since, and one of the effects of the disease was the loss of his nose.

The surgeons bared the flesh at the end of the ring finger of his left hand, scraped the bone, and fastened it with a plaster cast to his head where the nasal bone should have been. In another week this cast will be taken off, and if the operation is a success, the finger bone has grown fast to the skull, the surgeons will amputate the finger, and graft new flesh. Such an operation is not a novelty, but in so far as beauty is concerned there have not been many successes. It will be an anxious week for the surgeons and for the patient.

THREE ACCUSED OF MURDER PLOT

Woman Charges that Husband
Aided in Killing Man for Insurance.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 9.—That her husband, Frank Rice, his sister Mrs. Albert Taylor, and Dr. L. M. Stroud of Terrell, Texas, brought about the death of Albert Taylor at Terrell on January 2, 1908, is charged by Mrs. Ida Rice in an affidavit filed in connection with her suit for divorce here.

Mrs. Rice alleges that an insurance company paid $5,000 on the death of Taylor and that his amount was divided among the physicians, her husband and Mrs. Taylor.

Taylor's death, Mrs. Rice alleges, was due to poison injected hypodermically during several weeks. Mrs. Rice charges that her husband forced her to write to Dr. Stroud threatening him with exposure, unless he sent her $100.

MAGEE DIVORCE SURPRISE TO SOCIETY

Mrs. Walter Secures a Decree
Quietly in the Courts of Eureka, Nev.

CRUELTY IS THE CHARGE
MADE IN COMPLAINT

Husband Soon After Marriage
Returned to Old Haunts
With Gay Youths.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Six years of married life were enough for Mrs. Walter Magee, wife of one of the sons of the late Thomas Magee, the wealthy realty promoter of this city. The years of wedded life were not years of harmony or bliss and as a consequence, the alliance which was entered into six years ago and which was followed by an inundation of congratulations, has been brought to a close by a decree of divorce, which was received here yesterday from the courts in Eureka, Nev.

The elder Magee left each of his sons a comfortable fortune, but the son, Walter, who figures in this incident, found that his legacy was not sufficient to supply his needs as a man of the world, and especially as a man around town. He abandoned the plodding business in which his brothers were engaged and took his departure for Nevada, where for a time he pretended he was extracting a fortune from real estate ones of that State. He had taken as wife before his departure from this city the dancing Miss Flora Deane. The young Mrs. Magee was as well known in this city as was her husband, and the members of the swell set cannot recall when they were impelled to shower congratulations with more heartiness than they did on the occasion of the Magee-Deane nuptials.

Returns to Old Haunts

Twelve months, however, nullo many changes in married life. In the meantime there had been born a son to the pair, but that fact did not prevent the husband and father returning to this city and taking up his home at the old Palace Hotel.

While there Walter Magee was the leader of a number of gay youths who like himself had money to burn. He gave little or no attention to business. The hours as they came and went were devoted to pleasure. These hours were those of the night, as well as of the day. Automobiles were the only means of locomotion which could satisfy the demands of the young husband and his contrivers for speedy transportation from one part of the city to the other, and it is stated that on several occasions the occupants of the machines not satisfied with skimming along the surface of the streets at lightning speed sought to climb such things as Litta's Fountain and the wains of the tower structure in the neighborhood. It is needless to say that their ambition was interfered with by officers of the municipality and in some of the clashes which took place between Magee and the representatives of the law there were bloody encounters in which Magee became wise and a sorrier man.

Cruelty Is Charge

The appearance of Magee here and the absence of his wife led to the suspicion that there had been trouble between the couple, but neither would admit that such was the case.

It has now been ascertained that the divorce was secured on the ground of cruelty and that among the offenses in support of this charge was that Magee, while residing in Nevada had deliberately seized a pet dog and holding it out a gun, lengthily shot it with a revolver which he had up to that time, concealed on his person. Mrs. Magee has obtained custody of the only child born to the alliance. It is

POLOISTS DRAW THE LINE AT WOMEN

Miss Eleanor Sears, Heiress, Appears on Field Attired in Male Costume.

BREECHES, SHORT COAT,
POLO BOOTS AND ALL

Pouts When Men Won't Let Her Join Game, but She May Do So Yet.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The sex line has been drawn in polo at Bulling game. The athletes who ride ponies and who wear all kinds of grotesque costumes have decided that they want that privilege for themselves. No more woman may share the pleasure, the pain or the honors with them. This means that all women are to be denied the pleasure of the polo field at the place referred to for the reason that yesterday Miss Eleanor Sears, a Boston heiress, was given to understand that her ambition to appear upon the field and take part in the game with doughty male experts in that relaxation would not for a moment be encouraged. That intimation was delicately conveyed to the young woman after she had tugged herself out in the most fashionably of the toggery, which is supposed to be the real thing on the polo field.

Just Like a Man

This exclusion had not been anticipated by Miss Sears. She appeared in Bedard cord breeches, brown polo boots, a riding coat and sombrero, but the male players did not take her seriously. They were too polite, however, to tell her so, but on the quiet they declared that they felt that her presence in the polo field would be too much of a strain on their forbearance and their charity.

Miss Sears, however, took the matter rather philosophically. Although for one time she pointed on the veranda of the hotel, exclaiming to the friends who spoke to her on the subject, "They won't let me play. I guess I'm a no-account old thing."

One of the best players on the grounds yesterday when spoken to on the subject, said that there was no doubt that Miss Sears rode well, but riding well in riding for polo were two different things. The men would have to look out for her, for the time because she might get seriously hurt or perhaps killed if the game should happen to be played at its hardest.

Miss Jennie Crocker, too

In some respects there is a great resemblance in this matter between Miss Sears and Miss Jennie Crocker. The former is reputed to be the heiress of a millionaire father who made his money in copper. Miss Crocker, too, with a $100,000 fortune, however, took the morning of a polo player and the gallants of Burlingame say that it is not impossible that before the close of the season a game may be arranged so that the two young women may be able to indulge the propensity, but it will be a game in which the hazard to limb and life will not be run.

HAVE DIFFICULTY
IN RECOVERING BODY

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The body of a man was found on Baker's Beach this morning and it was necessary for Deputy Coroner Josh Riley to ask for assistance to recover it. The morning wagon made the long trip to Lands End, but Riley found that it would be impossible for two men to carry it the long distance up the side of the cliff to the wagon. He telephoned for police assistance and the patrol boat was sent out from the water front, and towed the body to an accessible spot.

A son who is now five years of age. The mother for some time past has been dividing her time between the Western ranch at Santa Barbara, which is owned by her grandmother, and the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. O. Mills, of this city. The latter's husband is a nephew of D. O. Mills.

TAKES REVENGE ON NEXT OF KIN

Unable to Find His Enemy, He Murders Relative in Sicilian Style.

ST. LOUIS, April 9.—Unable to find Louis Macduco, against whom he cherished a bitter hatred, Salvatore Ferrisio wreaked his vengeance upon the next of kin in the Sicilian style last night, slaying and shooting Sam Macduco in the hallway of his home at 5043 Disgrace avenue. The victim received a bullet wound in the chest and a bullet wound in the head, and died instantly. Ferrisio is a fugitive. Ferrisio had been wounded by Louis Macduco in a boxing ring. The men lived in the same boarding house and last evening drank together, but when Macduco went up the stairs to his room Ferrisio was thrown open and the shots rang out.

"I take my revenge," exclaimed the slayer, as he dashed past the other members of the household.
